upon the conviction of any person who permitted the use of, or is in charge of, any such item, the Court may, upon the application of the prosecu-

Court is satisfied that—

(i) the item was used in the commission of the offence or was otherwise connected with the offence; and

(ii) the circumstances of the case are such that it is just so to order.

(3) Where a person is brought before a Resident

17. In any action or other legal proceedings brought against the Crown or any Marine Officer or person acting in his aid in respect of any act done in pursuance or execution or intended execution of this Act or the regulations the plaintiff shall not recover unless he alleges in his pleading and proves at the trial that such act was done either maliciously or without reasonable or probable cause.
